IMPORTANT CHANGES AT PROLYTE DOUGHTY JAPAN INC

With effect of the 1st of November, anchorman Mutsuo Osawa will step down as Managing Director of PDJ. After many years of being active in many businesses and of which the last 5 years at PDJ, he has decided to stop his daily active role. Both Prolyte Group and Doughty Engineering are very thankful for his effort and ground breaking work. Osawa san will still be involved from time to time and will stay active as advisor and consultant for PDJ.

Charlie Zhang whom has been active for more than 20 years in the entertainment industry in Australia and Japan is appointed as the new General Manager of PDJ. This will be starting the new challenge at the 1st of November.

Due to these changes the office will also be relocated from this date on and new phone and fax numbers are set up.
